II. Students who make the initial cut after review of all applications will be contacted by e-mail or phone and requested to provide the further documentation. Request for additional documentation does not guarantee award. If you are not contacted for additional information, you can assume you are not under final consideration for award. Unfortunately, we are unable to send regret letters. Students who are selected to receive awards will be notified by mail. We anticipate decisions being made by Labor Day. Students selected to receive awards will also be posted on our website as selections are made.

III. Applications for Emergency Aid are not evaluated during the regular application process. See the website for details.
